

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., July 28th 1880.

To the

Custodian U.S. Mint Building
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Mr. George L. Damon of Boston, Mass. has this day been instructed to erect a single steel lined vault in the room in the basement of the building in your custody, immediately under the Coiner's room, to be used for the storage of silver dollars.

Instructions have also been issued to the Superintendent of Repairs John McArthur Jr. to prepare the room in question for the reception of the vault, at a cost not to exceed eight hundred and eight dollars ($8⁰⁰), and upon completion of the work, to submit through you to this Department for payment, vouchers in duplicate therefor, charged to the appropriation for "Storage of Silver Dollars."

Very respectfully

J. M. Lipton

Assistant Secretary

714

Secy Reading
Washington D.C.
July 28/80

J.B. Upton
Asst Secretary

Geo. L. Davis, of Boston, Mass, to place
a steel lined vault, for
S. S. Co., in basement
under Corner, room
pro. all other things to be paid room for the vault for $808. Bill to the Dept for pay to pro app. for
"Stage of Silver Dollar."

Recd July 30th 1880.

[Abstract:] Geo. L. Damon of Boston, Mass., to place a steel lined vault... 714

J.K.U.

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, D.C.,
July 28, 1880

To the
Custodian U.S. Mint Building
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Mr. George L. Damon of Boston, Mass., has this day been instructed to erect a single steel lined vault in the room in the basement of the building in your custody, immediately under the coiner's room, to be used for the storage of silver dollars.

Instructions have also been issued to the Superintendent of Repairs John McArthur Jr. to prepare the room in question for the reception of the vault, at a cost not to exceed eight hundred and eight dollars ($808.00) and upon completion of the work, to submit through you in this Department for payment, vouchers in duplicate therefore, charged to the appropriation for "Storage of Silver Dollars".

Very respectfully,
J.K. Upton
Assistant Secretary.